

Cookie Policy

CEISIEC 合同会社 (hereinafter referred to as "we" or "our") uses cookies to collect certain information for the purpose of analyzing website usage and providing customized services or advertisements to individual customers.

About Cookies Cookies are functions that store browsing information of customers on their computers (PCs, smartphones, tablets, and other internet-connected devices). There are cookies set by us (first-party cookies) and cookies set by third parties affiliated with us (third-party cookies).

Purpose of Using Cookies We use cookies to improve the convenience of customers, such as eliminating the need for customers to repeatedly enter the same information when browsing the website. Additionally, we may use information collected through cookies to analyze the usage of the website (access status, traffic, routing, etc.) and improve the performance of the website, as well as enhance and improve the services provided to customers by us. Furthermore, cookies may be used for delivering behavior-targeted advertisements by advertising distribution service providers affiliated with us.

How to Reject Cookies Customers can disable cookies through the following methods. However, please note that disabling cookies may result in some services not being available.

Method to Reject All Cookies Customers can disable cookies by changing their browser settings. For instructions on how to change cookie settings, please refer to the "Help" function of your browser. Alternatively, you can view explanations about managing cookie settings for commonly used browsers from the following links:
